Cities Fall Into Line To Raise Fund For The Senators' Ace

Albany-Decatur people entered into the spirit of the drive announced today through the Associated Press dispatches from Muskogee, Oklahoma and Charlotte, N. C., to raise "a million dollars from a million fans for Walter," remembering the effort of the great pitcher to purchase his own minor league ball club last year, in which effort he failed.

Announcement of the plan in other sections of the country found immediate approval here today and numbers of fans coming in the Daily office to learn the results of the seventh and final Senator-Pirate clash for the championship of the world, fell in line offering to give the stipulated sum of $1.00 toward the purchase of a club for the veteran speedball artist, flinging his nineteenth season with the world champion Senators.

Fans who wish to contribute to America's gift to a great American are requested to bring or send donations to the Daily office. The money will be forwarded to the headquarters of the drive at Muskogee.

Local folks feel a pride in being able to contribute something to Walter Johnson, one of the fairest and squarest in the national game, as part payment for the hours of enjoyable amusement he has afforded them at the present and in the years past. Johnson is undoubtedly baseball's greatest figure, an inspiration to the younger men who are just learning the game. Now that the hair along his temples is greying fans are happy that they can aid him as he nears the last milepost of major league activity.

The following dispatches were sent in by the Associated Press from other cities today:

(Associated Press)

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Oct. 15—A movement to raise funds among baseball fans of America for the purchase of a baseball club for Walter Johnson has been launched here. The plan originated with Claude Williford, president of the eastern playgrounds association and local business men.

"A million fans give a million dollars for a baseball team for Walter," is the slogan.

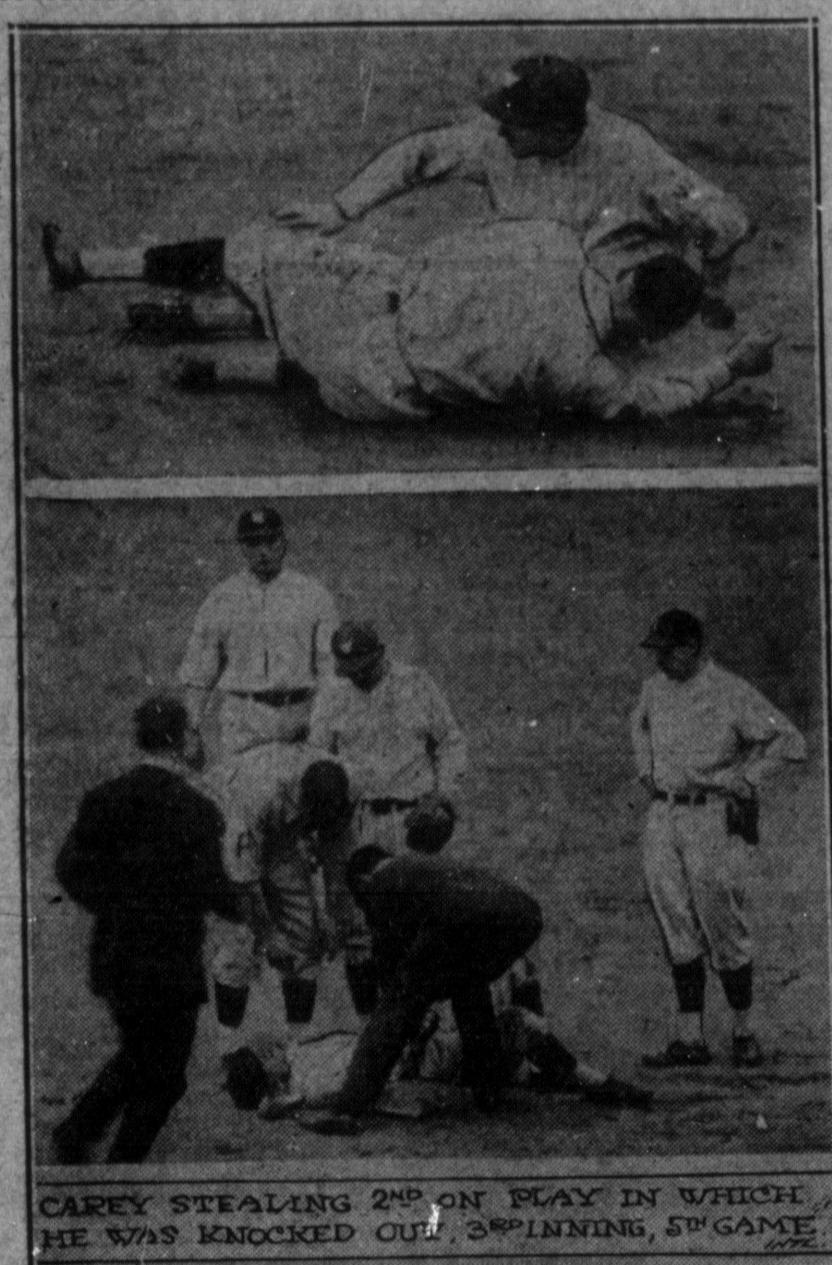

Williford recalled that after the 1924 world series Johnson expressed a desire to retire from active play and attempted to buy a minor league club. Gabby Street, who caught Johnson early in the speed ball kings career is manager of the club here and is partly responsible for the local popularity the plan is enjoying.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 15—Hardly had a dispatch from Muskogee, Okla., announced the initiation of a drive for buying a minor league ball club for Walter Johnson, veteran hurling king of the Washington Senators, than local people gave their immediate approval to the plan.

Highway Commission Vetoes Governor's Suggestion To Elect Colonel McCalla

(Associated Press)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 15—An expected clash between Governor W. W. Brandon and the state highway commission, over the choice of a new highway engineer, to succeed the late W. S. Keller materialized here this morning, when the commission voted down a resolution, offered by the governor, making Colonel W. A. McCalla highway engineer, and R. Platt Boyd and L. C. Smith his assistants.

The resolution was defeated by a two to one vote, Commissioners Scruggs and Suttle voting against it and Chairman Rogers voting in favor. In a resolution, dated October 15, the commission had suggested the temporary appointment of Colonel McCalla, until a permanent choice could be made. This morning Governor

W. W. Brandon returned the communication, in which he vetoed the suggestion and submitted the resolution, making McCalla permanent highway engineer.

His resolution, as suggested, follows: "Be it resolved by the highway commission, whereas the governor of Alabama, having recommended the promotion of all the employees of the department, therefore, be it resolved Colonel W. A. McCalla be promoted to the office of state highway engineer, to succeed the late lamented W. S. Keller.

Be it resolved further that in view of their faithful and efficient service that R. P. Boyd and L. G. Smith be assigned as follows:

"R. P. Boyd as maintenance engineer and L. G. Smith as location engineer. This being the policy of the governor."

ALABAMA ROADWAY CREATES DISFAVOR

Cannot Equal Other States To North,
Says Weakley

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 15.—(Special).—Alabama has the poorest roads between Birmingham and the Canadian border, according to President John B. Weakley, of the Alabama Water company, who has just returned from a motor trip to the Great Lakes region.

"Except for occasional short stretches, the roads between Birmingham and the Tennessee line are poor," Mr. Weakley says, "whereas, the 1,000 miles from that point north are all but perfect. Coming south, the difference in road conditions is very marked the moment the Tennessee line is crossed. No tourist can fail to get an unfavorable opinion of Alabama and her progress by comparing her roads with those of states to the north."

"Alabamians as a class, have not yet wakened up to the importance of perfect—not passable—roads and to the fact that other states are spending far larger sums in road building than Alabama has ever dreamed of. In the states north of Kentucky, especially, the day of building anything but the very best road possible has already passed. States, counties, and townships have learned that the best road is the cheapest in the end. In many sections of Alabama, on the other hand, the people are seemingly still content to put money in roads that are anything but permanent."

"Alabama is ideally located to profit immeasurably from the vast hordes of tourists who annually turn their faces southward. To do this, however, it is absolutely essential that she provide these tourists with roads at least as good as any her neighbors can boast. This will cost large sums of money, but it will be money most profitably invested."

Thin, Pale, Tired? Look Out For Chronic Fatigue

One of the most insidious ailments today is chronic fatigue. Thousands are only half-alive, constantly suffering with weakness, nervousness, palpitation of the heart, headaches, etc.—continually taking medicines—when, in the great majority of cases, the real trouble is chronic fatigue.

Chronic fatigue is entirely different from the "healthy" fatigue you feel after hard work. Chronic fatigue comes from within. Your nerves, muscles, organs, etc., have become run-down and cannot function properly.

To conquer it you must go to its cause—in the blood. For it is from the blood that every muscle, nerve and tissue gets its nourishment. So when you are thin, pale, tired and run-down, it is usually because your blood is thin and pale, lacking in sufficient organic iron to carry strength to the starved tissues.

What you need, then, is not mere tonics, but more organic iron in your blood, so it can carry strength and vigor to every part of your body.

But don't take the older mineral iron medicines which many doctors now say do little good. Take organic iron—Nuxated Iron—which is like the iron in your blood and like that in spinach and lentils. Unlike ordinary mineral iron it will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach, but is promptly assimilated.

Take Nuxated Iron for just two weeks and you'll be amazed how much stronger you feel—how the color comes back to your cheeks and the sparkle and life to your eyes. Money back if not improved. At all good druggists.

CAUSE OF A BABY'S CRY WHEN IT'S LIFTED

Usually This Means Some Painful Spot Is Being Pressed Upon, so a Mother Should Study Her Infant for Rickets, Pleurisy or Bad Manners.

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D., United States Senator from New York.
Former Commissioner of Health, New York City

LAST week I told the young mother something about the cry of the baby. Hunger, thirst and earache are causes of persistent crying. If the cry comes from the needs of the stomach, food or water will satisfy the infant and do away with the wailing. But the pain of earache is so terrific and so unceasing that nothing will control the crying until the ear trouble is controlled.

Every cry due to continued pain is like that of earache. It may be the child was dressed carelessly and a pin was so placed that it stuck into the delicate tissues of the baby. You can readily believe there will be no let-up in the screeching until the offending pin is removed.

The invention of the safety pin grew out of the need of protection against this cruel accident. No other kind of a pin should be used in dressing the baby.

The mother may observe that the infant cries whenever it is lifted. This means that in picking it up some sore and painful spot or region is pulled or pressed upon.

The trouble may be traced to pleurisy. Pressing upon the chest causes the inflamed lining to protest. It may be due to rickets. In this disease the ribs are tender. Pressing or pulling upon them causes pain and crying results.

There may be a sore or a bruise somewhere. In any event, if the child cries every time it is picked up it is a sign which should lead to a careful examination of the body and limbs to see if anything is wrong.

Not every baby is exactly angelic in its nature. It may have a bad temper or bad manners. It may have become the victim of a bad habit.

For instance, there are plenty of babies who are as fond of being carried about as their fathers are of riding in an automobile. Such babies learn to sit well and to keep their feet off all their tired mothers pick them up. They want to be amused and this is their way of demanding attention.

It is amazing how a very young infant will seek attention. I remember one tiny baby who would cry for a minute or so and then start listening for the footsteps of the parent. He was as tricky about it as a decoy duck with an artificial squeak.

The young mother must never give way to the baby. If the crying is clearly due to the desire to be carried, the whim of the child must not be indulged. Persistent crying to be picked up is an absolute evidence of the lack of proper training.

(NOTE.—This is the third of a series of articles, one being published weekly, for the benefit of the new mother.—Editor.)

Answers to Health Queries

ARLINE. Q.—What can I do to increase my weight?

A.—Build up your general health and in this way benefit your entire system and gain in weight as well. For full particulars send a stamped, self-addressed envelope and repeat your question.

C. H. E. Q.—What would you suggest for filling up the holes or pits left from acne? Is castor oil of any benefit?

A.—Hot and cold compresses applied alternately for ten or fifteen minutes daily might help this condition by contracting and making the marks less noticeable. Massage might also be of benefit. Cocoa butter would probably be best for this purpose.

MRS. R. R. Q.—What do you prescribe for callouses on the sole of the feet?

A.—Soak the feet in hot water before retiring and apply warm linseed oil. The next morning soak the feet again and scrape away the dead tissue.

Country Store And a Musical Comedy Is Club Plan

The Kiwanis club of Albany-Decatur is planning the annual country store for November 19, 20, 21 and a musical comedy for December 18, in connection with the annual Christmas tree charity feature of the local club work. It became known today at the regular weekly meeting of the club at the Y. M. C. A., which was enthusiastically attended.

John A. Peterson, chairman of the executive committee arranging for the musical comedy made his report to the club members today showing that plans are being carried rapidly forward. The show will be presented at the Princess Theatre.

Plans are likewise being carried forward looking toward a second successful country store. The club realized a substantial sum from the store last year which caused quite a bit of favorable comment in the cities.

Approximately fifteen representatives of the local club are planning to make a trip to the Selma convention. Walter Clifton of the Albany-Decatur club is being talked as district lieutenant-governor and is likely to receive the support of all the clubs in the northern section.

The meeting was closed following a number of Kiwanis songs led by M. R. Rankin, club secretary and the acceptance by the club of an invitation to visit the steel plants of the Decatur Cornice & Roofing company on a tour of inspection.

Final Rehearsal
Is Held Tonight

Final rehearsals will be held tonight for "Roseting," the musical comedy to be presented by local talent for the Decatur Parent Teacher association at the high school building Friday night.

The cast has been working earnestly and faithfully for the past ten days in an effort to make the production one of the best ever shown here in which local talent has taken part.

School children have had charge of the ticket sales and a large attendance is indicated. A parade, advertising the "production," is planned for Friday afternoon on the streets of the cities.

Laboratory Director To Remain In Charge of The Local Unit

Dr. A. J. Perolio, director of the Tennessee Valley laboratory, has declined a flattering offer to become director of a laboratory at Savannah, Ga., and will remain in charge of the local unit of the state health system.

Dr. Perolio has been director of the laboratory here sometime during which administration the services of the laboratory have been extended greatly and now is serving a majority of physicians in the entire Valley.

So great has the development been that the original space allotted for the laboratory now is inadequate and the quarters are cramped, additional space now being needed badly. Planned to handle about 500 specimens monthly, the laboratory now is handling more than 2,000 specimens monthly.

Work Starts Soon
On New Ice Plant

Work will be started soon on the new plant of the Decatur Ice and Coal company, to be erected near the Louisville and Nashville tracks, west of Second Avenue, it was stated today by Jervis Jones, manager of the company.

Mr. Jones said that plans for construction are nearly complete. A construction engineer will be called into conference within the next few days to place final approval on them, after which a contract will be let and construction started.

The company plans the erection of one of the most modern ice manufacturing and cold storage plants in the South.

All share the benefits of this gain in operating efficiency

We are now carrying 130% more freight than we did twenty years ago, but with an increase of only 10% in the mileage run by our freight locomotives.

This increased efficiency has been made possible by the large investment of capital in more powerful locomotives, larger freight cars, greater track and terminal facilities, and the reduction of curves and grades.

The results have been—Better transportation service for the South;

Higher wages for our employees;

Freight rates lower in proportion to the general level of prices than they were before the war;

Earning power that will attract new capital for expansion.

All share the benefits of this gain in operating efficiency.

Two Lots Bring Record Prices

An indication of the increase in real values here was given this week by the purchase of lots in Decatur by J. W. Cunningham and H. R. Speake well known local business men. The consideration involved were not given but the lots were said to have brought record prices. The Speake lot is located at the corner of Oak and Walnut streets, while the Cunningham lot is on Line street. Mr. Cunningham plans the erection of a handsome home on the property at once.

Mr. Jones said that plans for construction are nearly complete. A construction engineer will be called into conference within the next few days to place final approval on them, after which a contract will be let and construction started.

If You Toss in Bed Try
This Simple Mixture

Gas pressure in the abdomen causes a restless nervous feeling and prevents sleep. Simple buckthorn bark, magnesium sulph. c. p. glycerine, etc. as mixed in Adlerika, helps any case gas on the stomach, unless due to deep seated causes. Because Adlerika is such an excellent intestinal evacuant it is wonderful for constipation—it often works in one hour and never gripe. Caddell Drug Co., Albany, Decatur Drug Co., Decatur.—Advt.

well, New Mexico.

Do your Christmas saving early.

With some 40,000 yelling fans in the stands, that was rather a costly rain at Pittsburg Wednesday.There is nothing in a name, Sandow, the world's strongest man, is dead."Scaffold Kills Three," is an Age-Herald headline. It was only an accident, occurring during building construction."Government Out of Date," Governor Frank O. Lowden is quoted as saying. The frequency of crime waves indicates there are many who agree with him.With ginning totals already beyond other records up to October 1, and many observers firm in the belief that there still remains some 30 per cent more cotton to get from the fields, it looks like Morgan county people will have more than usual to be thankful for this November.Peter M. Hoffman, Chicago sheriff, has been fined and given a jail sentence for contempt of court, as a result of his granting of liberty to convicted bootleggers. The latter testified they paid the sheriff large sums for their special privileges. It looks as if the sheriff also is to do some paying now, and it is a higher price for him at that.OPPORTUNITIES OFFERED BY TOBACCO IN MORGAN COUNTY APPEAR BRIGHTThe news article, published in The Daily Wednesday afternoon, regarding the possibility of establishing of a tobacco warehouse in this county, appears to be worthy of deep consideration by Morgan county farmers and others interested in the welfare of the agricultural future of the county.Cotton always will be the dominant crop in this county, but there is no reason why we should not be ever alert to find new ways to net cash incomes on our farms. Tobacco, it seems, is netting quite a good cash income to Welch Orr, of near Hartselle, who declares that five acres have given him a cash rent of $100 an acre for two years in succession. A large crop of cotton and a good price for the staple are required to net that much, and certainly, our experience has taught us that large crops and big prices rarely go hand in hand.Mr. Orr was given to understand by the North Carolina company with which he deals, that, if half a hundred or so Morgan county farmers would agree to plant approximately five acres in tobacco, the company would open a warehouse in this section and send a resident buyer here to purchase the yield.The Daily trusts that officials of the farm bureaus and the other agencies, now devoting so much attention to the welfare of the county and already accomplishing such splendid results, will give the consideration to the suggestion which it so obviously deserves.ANDREW G. PATTERSON SELECTED AS HEAD OF NATIONAL COMMISSIONERS' ASSOCIATIONAlabamians generally will be deeply gratified at the selection, in Washington Wednesday afternoon, of Andrew G. Patterson of this city, as president of the national association of utility and railroad commissioners. Albany-Decatur, naturally, feels keen pleasure at the action of the association.The magnitude of the association sphere is realized when it is taken into consideration that its membership embraces the personnel of the utility and railroad commissions in virtually every state in the whole union. Mr.
Patterson's selection, from this array of able men, shows quite clearly that the nation is beginning to recognize his unusual talents.Mr. Patterson is a native Morgan countian and for many years made his home in this community, prior to his first election as chairman of the public service commission. Just before he entered the office, a law was passed requiring the residence of the chairman in Mont-gomery. Mr. Patterson, of course, observed the spirit and the letter of the act, and moved his family to the capital. Unlike many others, whose star is in the ascendency, he never has forgotten his home people, and he visits here as often as his duties will permit him.HOSPITAL COMMITTEE IS APPOINTED: FUTURE OF INSTITUTION IS BRIGHTERThomas A. Bowles Wednesday announced the committee of Shriners to take charge of the campaign for $20,- 000 for the Benevolent hospital, and already the future is brighter for that institution, for the Shriners, once they have set their hands to the task before them, will not turn back, until the task is accomplished.The personnel of the committee is such that the success of the undertaking is assured, if the public will give the workers the degree of co-operation they deserve to have.The Benevolent hospital's problems are the problems of the community, because its existence touches every section of this territory, and, in effect, almost touches the very life of every household. Many families, possibly, have never had the occasion to utilize its services, yet the chance always remains that such may become necessary, today, tonight or any time.It certainly should be a matter of concern to every resident that the hospital should have sufficient equipment, yet it has not; it should be the concern of every resident that the hospital should have ample room, but it hasn't. Too long have we already delayed applying the remedy to a situation which was recognized even several years ago. Can we afford longer to delay?The Benevolent hospital has done the very best it could with the limited resources at hand. Isn't it high time that the residents of those Tennessee Valley counties using it, made up their minds the financial backing necessary for its full development be given the institution?ALABAMA TOWNS SHOULD DO SOME ADVERTISING IN THEIR OWN BEHALFThe advertising campaign being inaugurated for this state by the recently-formed organization, "Advertising Alabama Abroad, Inc., is a splendid move. All that Alabama needs is for its resources, advantages and progress to be told to the world, and the state-wide effort being made to do this cannot help having fine results. It should attract attention to Alabama from all parts of the United States.In connection with the state-wide advertising effort, it would be well for the various cities and towns in Alabama to do some boasting and advertising in their own behalf. California, with its state-wide advertising and the advertising the trans-continental railroads give that state, also is advertised by its progressive cities. The same is true of Florida.There is no reason why Alabama should not add many millions of dollars to its industrial resources, many thousands of people to its population and many progressive farmers to its agricultural sections, once the people of other portions of the United States are told what Alabama is and what it has, and when this is being done, those Alabama towns will reap the greatest benefit that make the best showing.Take the case of Anniston, for instance. People away from here do not know that Anniston really is a wonder city; that less than fifty years ago it was a corn field; that the vision of two men, Samuel Noble and Daniel Tyler, changed the corn field into a furnace town, and that their dream of an industrial city is being realized now in the greatest cast iron pipe manufacturing center in the world. The outside world does not know that Anniston has thirty or more manufacturing plants, all operating and some of them the largest of their kind in the country.What Anniston has to tell the outside world would open the eyes of the whole people and Anniston is but one Alabama city.Cities and towns of Alabama should heartily co-operate with "Advertising Alabama Abroad, Inc." and they should do their bit for themselves in telling the world of their own special points of advantages. If this is done the crowds will begin coming to Alabama as they now are going to Florida and California.—Anniston Star.BISHOP BROWN, of Ohio, has at last been expelled by the house of bishops. The good old bishop, who insisted on doing his own thinking, applied for an injunction to restrain other bishops from puttingJohn W. Weeks, who for some several years has been drawing a fat salary as head of the war department and member of the Harding-Coolidge cabinets, when he was able to attend the meetings, has quit his office, and strange as it may seem, the government still exists.Mr. Weeks, no doubt, readily admits his ability, but it is remarkable the manner in which he has managed to hide them during his two terms of office. Statisticians should be engaged by the government to find, if anything, what Mr. Weeks has done to earn his salary.Tennessee Valley people sympathize with the former secretary in his present condition of ill health. Beyond that, however, would as soon that he continues his proposed South American trip indefinitely. Probably in the Valley there is someone who thinks John W. Weeks is an outstanding statesman. The worshiper, however, is in a hopeless minority.The Age-Herald, usually given to lending praise, where praise is due, finds practically nothing in Mr. Weeks nor his record to laud:The retirement Tuesday of Mr. John W. Weeks was not unexpected. In fact, the resignation was a long overdue formality, as Mr. Weeks has for a long time been unable to attend to his duties as secretary of war. It is understood that he himself volunteered to retire months ago, but, doubtless for political reasons, there was no haste in encouraging his withdrawal.The record of Mr. Weeks as secretary of war is not outstanding, unless it be an outstanding performance to delay and procrastinate in those matters vital to the national defense. This policy is very apparent with respect to the disposition of the Muscle Shoals project, concerning which a secretary of war should have been most alert and active. Yet Mr.
Weeks' policy was to defer, postpone and evade this responsibility.Likewise, the secretary of war has been dilatory in envisioning efficiency in the standing army and in the civilian training program. He has not urgently demanded adequate funds for maintaining even the minimum of efficiency recommended by army experts.
He has not advanced any constructive ideas as to the proper administration of army aircraft, nor has he been awake to its possibilities in our national defense.
He may academically have approved of efficient administration of our military defense, but he has not been a leader nor an inspiration in bringing such administration to pass. Therefore, Mr. Weeks goes out of office without leaving a void, not because of the perfection of his organization, but because he filled no essential place during his incumbency.TODAY lemen, remember that Johnson "HAD EVERYTHING," but he had first, last and all the time SELF-CONTROL. He trained for his great pitching feat, the reporters said, as though he were training for a prize fight.HE TRAINED for something much better than a fight. He trained to demonstrate that so-called "old age," in baseball is not important. He proved that it is not hard WORK that hurts us, but WHAT WE DO BETWEEN TIMES.A man old at thirty-nine or forty is not made old by work. He is made old by late hours, dissipation, drink, stupidity.Consider Walter Johnson, the great pitcher, study his ways and be wise.RATS in Britain do $350,000,000 damage every year. Here they do more damage. There is more for them to damage.England endured the $350,000,000 annual damage more or less patiently, but now the rats make themselves a nuisance in Buckingham Palace, where the king and queen live; where Woodrow Wilson slept and dreamed democratic dreams.Rats in Buckingham Palace are not to be endured. The slogan, "eat more fruit," has been changed to "kill more rats."A SMALL part of the money that was recently spent in the big war killing other MEN would exterminate all the rats, all the mosquitoes, wipe out all the plagues and clean up all plague spots on the earth.Fortunately rats and plagues climb up from the slums into the palaces. That attracts the attention of those that have the power and then something is done?BISHOP BROWN, of Ohio, has at last been expelled by the house of bishops. The good old bishop, who insisted on doing his own thinking,

applied for an injunction to restrain other bishops from puttinghim out. While the application was pending he was expelled. It is over and until the day of Judgment nobody will know, who was right.THE expelled bishop, however, can go on living about as usual.
Friends will eat with him, restaurants will entertain him, tailors will make clothes for him. That's a change.If he had been excommunicated in the good old days, all would flee from him, the meanest in the land would not touch or come near him.
His case is different from that of the proud emperor who came over the mountains in the cold of winter and stood barefoot in the snow at Canossa, begging to be forgiven.REAL ESTATE is a respectable and stable business. August Heckscher who says he is like the old cab horse in Dickens, that would fall down if its driver allowed it to stop, goes on working and occasionally buys something.A few days ago for "all cash" he bought a 32 story building at No. 61 Broadway, New York, for $17,000,000. That would surprise old Astor, who used to buy farms on Manhattan Island.Moral:Buy a piece of real estate now, where the $17,000,000 building will be later.COMMERCIAL news from Japan is cheerful—for Japan and us. Japanese exports of raw silk to the United States in the first half of 1925 were nearly double what they were in 1924, and the goods sold by the United States to Japan fell off 25,000,000 yen in the same period.This means poor business for us, but it is what you might call "peace news." A nation or individual likes to maintain a peaceful attitude toward a first class customer.FROM now until next summer, assisted by eight thousand citizens lending themselves to study and experiment, the health laboratory at the University of Amsterdam, Holland, will investigate and seek to find a "prevention or cure for the common colds."Man's worst enemies are microscopic, invisible to the eyes, and tiny creatures that produce the various assortments of "colds" shorten the average life of the human race and create a loss in diminished days of labor and efficiency amounting to millions a year.THOUGHTS

LEAVES FROM LIFE'S BOOK

Often amid the busy activities of this life we turn back the pages of the past, drinking in the elixir of life carried beneath their folds and review some of the places we passed as we hurried along going to the land somewhere. As we read this page from our life's book, we see a beautiful setting where we perhaps min-tered to some one who needed the effort we gave. On another page we see a blot we were in too great a hurry to stop, and lost an opportunity it may be to give just a cup of cold water.

As we turn its pages we are carried back to the garden of youthtime with all of its beauty and happiness, and rejoice that we passed in and out of that garden of yesterday, bordered on every side with the meat beautiful flowers, and pictured with a landscape which to our minds has never been duplicated.

As we turn to this book it carried us out of the garden of youth into the broad arena of life where we get a broader conception of life and its purposes. As we step on this threshold, duties and opportunities beset us with a smiling invitation. To grasp these means prompt resolution, tire-<

How The Drought
Helped Alabama

Nothing has occurred within the last few years in Alabama to emphasize more strongly her strategic location than the recent extended drought.

On account of low water and the shortage of hydro-power, plants in many of our sister states were compelled to curtail operations at a great loss to the industries affected.

Not so in Alabama. Not for a single day, nor even an hour, did the wheels of industry in Alabama cease to turn. Steam power plants, supplied with coal from Alabama coal fields, met the crisis.

And after meeting Alabama's every need, they came to the rescue of our neighbors and supplied their deficiency.

Industrial enterprises want continuous power service. They know now where to find it.

Common Malady Is Dangerous To Expectant Mothers

More Than Twenty Thousand Expectant Mothers Pay With Their Lives Every Year for Neglect of Serious Condition.

Many of those women who made the supreme sacrifice, paid with their lives for their error in trying to perform the miracle of bringing a new life into the world without preparing their organs for the task in advance. Nine out of ten such women suffer from some form of so-called "female trouble," such as headaches, backaches, pains in the sides, cramping, nausea, swelling of the joints during pregnancy, irregularity, nervousness, lassitude and that awful feeling of apprehension and depression so common among women and girls nowadays; and the cause of 90 per cent of these distressing ailments has now been definitely proven to be the terrible and unseen enemy—catarrh of the female generative organs.

"It is its proven reliability to overcome and stamp out catarrh of the generative organs which is responsible for the wonderful success St. Joseph's G. F. P. is now enjoying in relieving thousands of weak, thin and undernourished women of their suffering and pain and restoring them to health and happiness, with plenty of energy, vitality and buoyancy," says the representative of the discoverers of this phenomenal medicine.

Thousands of expectant mothers are now getting themselves in readiness for this great event in their lives through the consistent use of this marvelous medicine, which not only relieves them of the suffering and pain caused by catarrh, but strengthens and invigorates their system, builds up real, solid flesh, tissue and muscle and stimulates the healthy, regular functioning of their bodily organs, thus preparing them and helping to make childbirth the easy dream nature intends it to be.

SERIES
HEADLIGHTS

McInnis—Pirates

John Phelan (Stuffy) McInnis, 35 years old and one of the most famous players on the Pirate roster, is very likely to see much service at first base in the world's series. Only he and Eddie Collins, the Chicago manager, survive one of history's greatest infields, the old Philadelphia American $100,000 combination, which also included Jack Barry and Frank Baker. McInnis, a native of Gloucester, Mass., appeared in the professional ranks with New Bedford and Haverhill of the old New England League in 1908. The next year found him in Philadelphia and for nine years he remained there, successor to Harry Davis. In 1918, his usefulness considered at an end, Stuffy was traded to the Red Sox and baseball men regarded the deal as a gift, but while there he made one of the game's greatest marks, one error being charged against him in an entire season.

Boston traded him to Cleveland in 1922 in a deal for Joe Harris and Elmer Smith. The Indians released him unconditionally later that season and he went to the Braves where he hit .315. Before the present season started he announced dissatisfaction with salary matters and was dropped to be signed by Pittsburgh. He has been a big factor in carrying the team to the pennant.

McInnis has participated in four world's series three, with Philadelphia and one with the Red Sox.

Grantham—Pirates

George Farley Grantham, first baseman, is one of the players obtained from Chicago last winter in a deal which brought along Vic Aldridge and Bert Niehaus for Rabbit Maranville, Charley Grimm and Wilbur Cooper.

In Chicago he was a second baseman but McKechnie transformed him into a first sacker when Niehaus proved a "bust." In 100 games he has batted .320 and is considered one of the most dangerous stickers in the Pirate cast.

Grantham played with the Cubs three years and in 1924 batted .316. His earlier experience was with Tacoma in 1920-1921 and Omaha of the Western League in 1922.

He is a native of Galena, Kan., and is 25 years old. He is 5 feet, 10 inches tall, weighs 155, and is one of the fastest men in the game.

Aldridge—Pirates

Vic Aldridge, a big righthander, has been a successful pitcher throughout his major league career. In three years with the Chicago Cubs he won 47 games and lost 36. He had a trial in 1917 and 1918 with the same club winning six and losing the same in the first year and losing one in his second season before being sent to Los Angeles.

The Pirates obtained him in the great trade of last November and his percentage of victory this year is .667. In only one year of his baseball career has Aldridge failed to show more victories than defeats.

He was born in Indian Springs, Ind., Oct. 25, 1894. In the off season he is a school teacher.

Meadows—Pirates

H. Lee Meadows, Florida real estate operator, and the only bespectacled pitcher in the majors, is in his eleventh year of big league service, having played with three clubs in the National League. He was traded to Philadelphia by St. Louis, after four years there, in 1919, and the Pirates obtained him in 1923 along with Johnny Rawlings for Glazner and Tierney.

In ten years he won 129 games and lost 150 but this season he has been a strong member of the Pittsburgh staff, winning twice as many games as have gone against him. This has been his best year in the majors.

Meadows was born in Oxford, N. C., July 12, 1894. He is six feet tall and weighs 170 pounds.

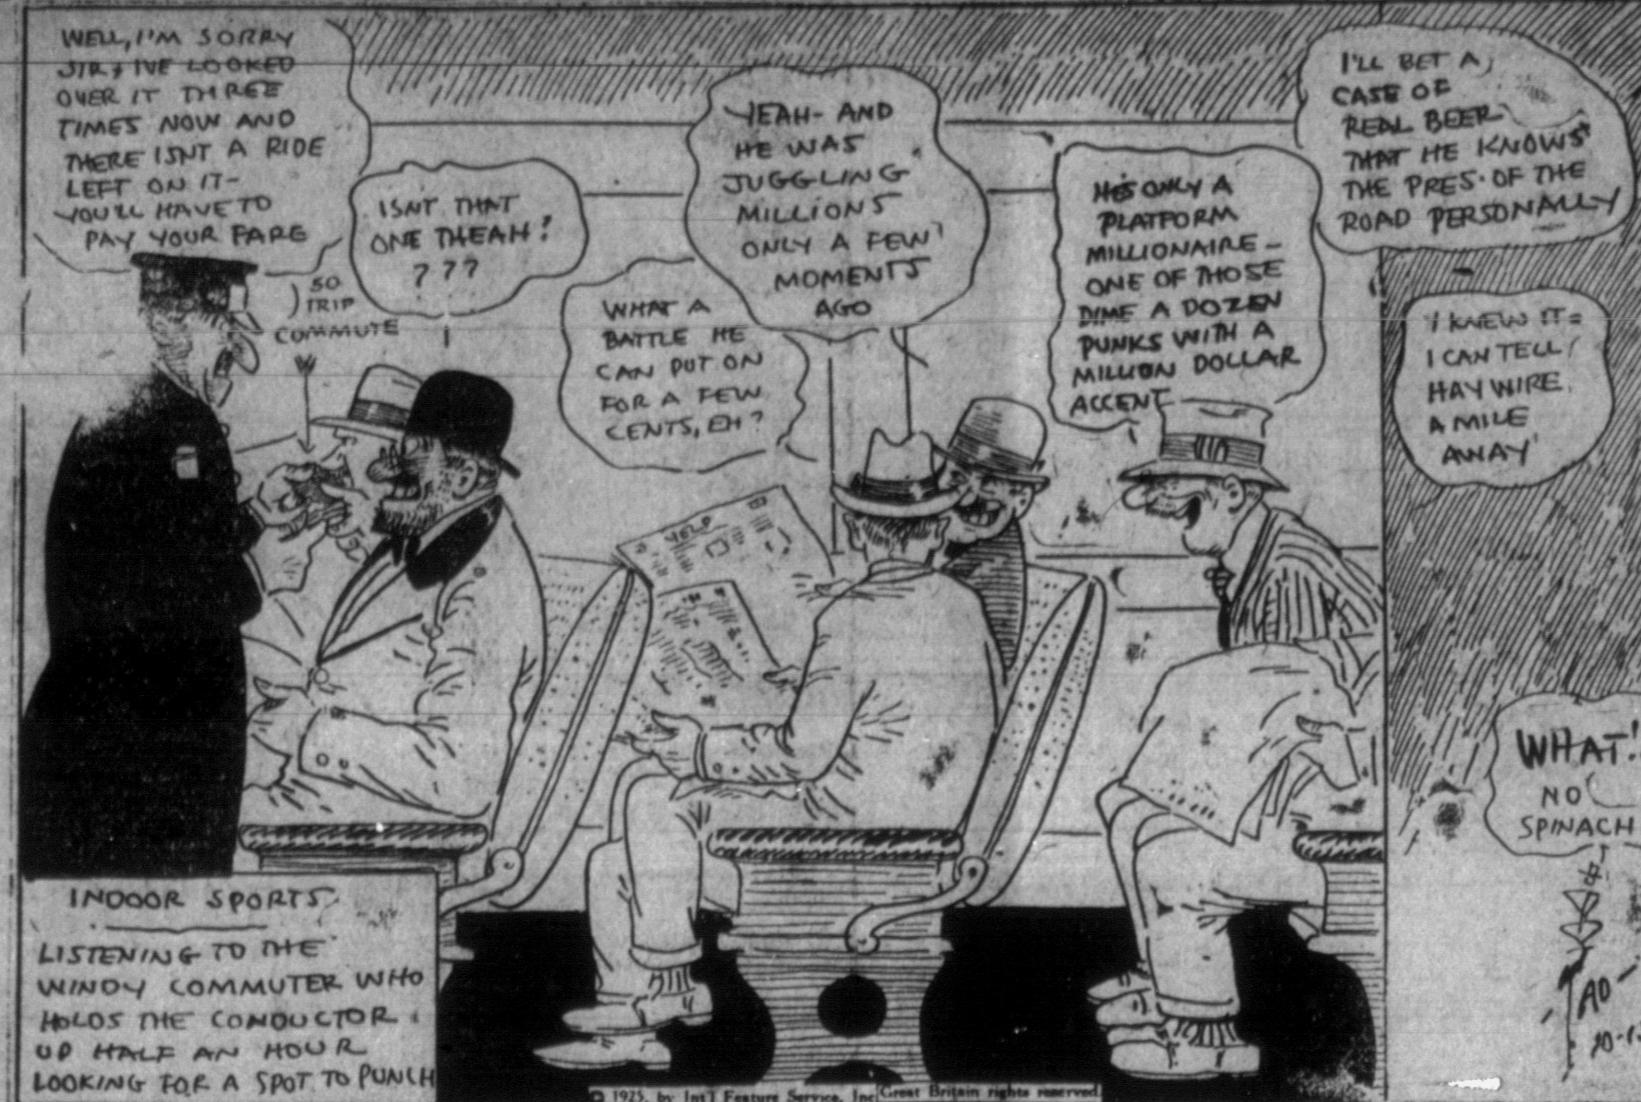

Kremer—Pirates

Ray Kremer, one of the mainstays of the Pirate staff in the drive for the pennant, although he has been in professional baseball since 1914, is only in his second year of major league work. He was obtained from Oakland of the Pacific Coast League after the 1923 season. In 1915, however, he was with the Giants for a time but had no opportunity to show and the next season appeared with Vancouver. From 1916 to 1923 he was with Oakland, his home city.

In his first year Kremer demonstrated his value by winning 18 and losing 10 and this year his average is better than .600. He is 29 years old, stands 6 feet 1 inch, and weighs 190 pounds. When the baseball days end he drills oil out in California.

Yde—Pirates

Emil Yde (pronounced Eedee) came into note last season as one of the game's greatest left-handers when he won 16 games against 3 defeats, his first season in the majors. This year

Alabama-Sewanee Tilt Holds State Fans In Grip of King Football for Saturday

Centering the major engagements in this state for Saturday is the Alabama-Sewanee tilt at Birmingham. The Sewanee Tiger is bounding from the mountain hilltop with a world of confidence and an improved team over the purple representative that came down from the Tiger lair last year to meet a fall before the Red Tide.

Prominent in the Alabama team this year is a local representative in the personage of Raymond Pepper, giant fullback of past years at Albany high. Pepper has not been heralded a star at the Alabama institution this year owing to a great backfield that has been built without him, but he will see service in the Tiger tilt as a Red Line reserve.

Many were the backers of the snarling Purple Tiger today, local fans feeling that the great eleven at Alabama which last year galloped away with the championship of the southland is due for a flop. They pick Sewanee to offer the opportunity for that flop. Betting in a great many cases was even, though some Sewanee believers were asking points on the game.

Sewanee has developed what is considered one of the best backfields in the south, a versatile aggregation at all sort of offensive play, light and fast, extremely aggressive and threatening at all times to carry across the opposing goal line. The Tiger-Bama battle is always a real battle regardless of the relative strength of the two elevens.

ALABAMA TEAMS BATTLE
(Associated Press)

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 15—Alabama will be given the chance to even the count of Conference games won with Auburn here next Saturday when the Tigers of Sewanee come down for the annual classic with the Tide, while the Auburnites digress and make a visit to Dallas to battle the Texas Longhorns. Auburn has already tucked two conference battles under her belt by victories over Clemson and V. P. I., while 'Bama has met only one conference enemy to wit, L. S. U.

The tide should make it two and two his record is imposing with twice as many victories as defeats and he is expected to carry the portside burden for McKechnie in the world's series.

Yde, a 175 pound physical director was born Jan. 28, 1901, at Great Lakes Ill., and twenty years later played his first professional baseball with Cedar Rapids. The years 1922 and 1923 saw him with Oklahoma City, whence he came to the Pirates for a reported price of $15,000. In his second season with Oklahoma City he won 28 and lost 12.

Morrison—Pirates

John Dewey (Jughandle) Morrison of Pillererville, Ky., is one of the veterans of the Pirate staff. He received his nickname locally from the numerous twists which he compels a baseball to make in reaching the batter.

Morrison now 29 years old, advanced to the majors through Madisonville, Anniston and Birmingham, Ala., in 1924, showed 63 victories and 47 losses living in the Pittsburgh camp in 1920. His record, including the season of 1927 in which 957 innings 950 hits were made from his service. He has been victorious in a majority of his games this season.

He is a righthander, who stands almost six feet and weighs about 170 pounds.

V. P. L. The Tigers were doped to win in this game, but the most ardent Auburn fans had not expected a 19 point lee-way. Auburn's aerial attack an innovation of the Morey regime is the answer to how it was done.

Alabama squashed L. S. U., also contrary to general expectation. The Tigers of Donohue were given great respect by Tide adherents before the game, and the Louisiana lads were hoping for a win. Sickness and injuries, which had cut into the Alabama squad, failed to hold the Tuscaloosans back, however, and before the game was ended, it was a matter for the third string men to handle. This they did fairly well.

The Moccasons of Chattanooga held off Howard Bulldog to a close decision at Woodward Saturday and the win of one William Bancroft.

would have left with a scoreless tie to their credit. Bancroft failed to shine in the long runs that many fans had hoped for, but he wrote his name in fiery letters with an accurate drop kick just as the game ended, nearly bringing heart failure to the team's supporters and wholly bringing joy.

Aggravated with the maulings given them in succession by the Auburn Tigers and the Crimson Tide, the Birmingham-Southern Panthers shook the Southwestern Presbyterians out of a 10-3 win Saturday at Memphis. The locals did not allow the Preds to pack the ball across the goal line, making them content themselves with a three-point boot over the bar. The battle was about according to dope, the Panthers playing in their own class for the first time this year.

Are You Half Tryin'?

Sam had been fishing down at the creek all day when Old Mose came along—and after the usual greetings, Mose inquired—

"Been fishin' long, Sam?"

"Yes," replies Sam.

"Ketch many?" queries Mose.

"Nope," answers Sam dejectedly, and then he adds, "You know, Mose, I've about convinced my worm ain't half tryin'."

Well, if you don't walk upstairs for your next suit, overcoat or ladies' coat, you are not "half tryin'" to see where you can get BETTER CLOTHES FOR LESS MONEY.
